GRANGE ENJOYS OLD SETTLER PICTURES

Mr. Harold Morton entertained the Grange Tuesday evening immediately after the banquet with his moving pictures of the Washington birthday celebration. Plates were set for 130 people at the banquet and some 20 or 30 people sat at the second table.

New High School Needed

What building facilities should be provided to supply the needs of the district?

What is desirable in a schoolhouse depends upon a number of factors. It is generally conceded that a modern school plant should serve four important functions. These are:

1. The protective function The arrangements ought to be hygenic and comfortable, should promote health and morals, and should safeguard against bad environmental influences.

2. The administrative function. The building should be easy to supervise and administer and should add to the efficiency of the teachers, principal, and janitor.

3. The social function. Children are social beings, they are citizens of the school community. They are interested in clubs, school government, publications, and many forms of organized activities. The community too, has many uses for a central meeting place which the school should serve. A school house should make for good citizenship and community well-being.

4. The educational function. Under this heading is included training in the various school subjects: mathematics, science, history, English, and so forth These constitute the program of studies.

A school house should be built to accommodate the accepted program of studies and should be reasonably well adapted to future additions. For example, there is a strong tendency in the direction of a more liberal program. This means a somewhat lessened emphasis upon the ordinary college entrance requirements and more atention to industrial arts, home economics, art, commercial, music, agriculture, hygiene and sanitation, economics, and general science.

KIDS HAVE KID DAY

Kid Day was held at school Monday with great excitement.

It had been planned previously that the whole school should dress as kids, but as a result only the girls appeared as kids.

Frills, ruffles, short socks, bow and sashes, ase well as teddy bears and mama dolls greeted the eyes.

I'm sure the behavior was far from the best in all classes Monday as it was exceedingly hard to keep the mama dolls from crying.

Many pictures were taken to celebrate the great occasion and any one buying an Oriole this year may see some of these pictures.

EXPERT INFORMATION ON NEW HIGH SCHOOL BOND PROJECT

The high school trustees are preparing to mail a letter to the voters of the district concerning the coming bond election. A portion of this letter is here given:

After due deliberation the trustees of the Campbell Union High School decided that it would be necessary to submit to the voters the proposition of building a new high school. Since the fire at the annex, the work of the school has been very much hampered on account of the crowded condition. Even before the fire, sentiment was strong in some quarters for a new plant, but the trustees hesitated to put this additional burden on the taxpayer. Now, however, it is absolutely necessary to make provision for additional room and facilities. You are asked to vote on April 6 for a bond issue of $250,000. Experts have advised the board that this is the minimum amount by which the needed facilities may be obtained.

Dr. John C. Almack of Stanford University and Andrew P. Hill Jr., of San Jose have been employed by the board as expert advisers. They have studied the present plant and found it inadequate and in bad condition. It scores only 397 points out of a possible 1000 on a standard score card.

Furthermore, the high school attendnace is increasing at a rapid rate. If the voters refuse to sanction the issuance of bonds, it will be necessary to make additons to existing plant. Money spent in this way will be almost a total loss to the taxpayer, as only temporary relief can be secured by this method.

A study of the other high school districts of the county shows that the district is very favorably situated in a financial way. The folowing table gives some comparative figures:

District	assessed valuation	Bonds	Maintenance	Total
Los Gatos	6,109,410	42	75	1.17
San Jose	40,461,000	39	75	1.14
Mt. View	5,616,695	22	75	.97
Gilroy	5,973,355	29	67	.96
Fremont	5,860,365	16	75	.91
Palo Alto	10,772,110	21	70	.91
Morgan Hill	4,204,295	12	69	.81
Santa Clara	6,162,985	32	37	.69
Campbell	6,201,115	08	47	.55

The old bonds are being retired this year. This means that the tax rate for bonds will be in the future, only that necessary to take care of the new bond issue.

The tax rate, over a period of 30 years will vary from 28c to 20c. For the first year, there, the increase in rate will be 20c. (the difference between the new rate of 28c and the present rate of 08c)

Approximately 75 students from districts outside a high school district now attend Campbell Union High School for a tuition charge which last year amounted to $141.40 per student. The basis of calculating the tuition is to take the actual cost to the district, including interest and payments on bonds. If Willow Glen, therefore, continues to send her pupils to Campbell, she will pay a considerable portion of the bonds. Furthermore, these students can be taken care of without materially adding to the cost of instruction. The district is also reimbursed by the county for the transportation of these students.

Dr. Almack and Mr. Hill in their preliminary report to the board, had the following to say regarding the size of the site.

"The space devoted to physical education, athletics, plays and games is readily defensible. Considering that around seven acres is set aside for this purpose, it means an investment of only about $10,000, not much more than the cost of a single class room and in our judgment decidedly more valuable.

This means in social terms an investment in good health and the development of clean wholesome habits. The athletic field and playground is the best force there is for combating the less desirable recreational tendencies of the age.

"It is not too much to set aside four or five acres for experimental gardens, green houses, nurseries and the like. This is the only school in this part of the county that teaches Smith-Hughes work in agriculture.

"At all events it is important to acquire sufficient land now to provide for such possible future needs as have been suggested. We believe, therefore, that a site of fifteen acres represents the smallest area that should be bought An eighteen or twenty acre site is not too much."

The present site contians about six acres.

TUNE IN ON YOUR VIRTUES!

The human entity is like a radio, and the world about us as radio waves. Impressions are always coming in; and your success and happiness depends upon the stations on which you tune in. You can tune in on virtues or faults, good or bad, as you operate your tuning dial. And your tuning dial is your thinking machine.

What stations are you getting today? There are knowledge, Temperance, Patience, Godliness, Brotherly-kindness and Love. But one of the greatest of stations is Virtue. It is the great control super-station and has to do with all the rest.

It's up to you brother! If your dial isn't adjusted to the right wave length you're likely to get stations Greed, Envy, Vanity, Selfishness, Ignorance, Hate, Intemperance and Misunderstanding. And probably the greatest of these evil stations in Misunderstanding, for it throws out the waves that interfere with all the rest. It is full of static. It will lead you nowhere and back again. A Devil is the announcer.

Every person holds within his power and will the ability to tune in on the stations that will bring either joy or sorrow, good or evil, rights or wrongs, ease or hardship, companionship or loneliness, harmony or friction: and all these without interfering with the other fellow's pleasures or adding to his woes.

The world about you sends out the waves according to the good or evil that it thinks and does. But it is within your own self that you control the tuning dial that makes or breaks you, and which, if tuned in on the right station helps to place you in the work that the world expects you to do. And it is only by finding your ultimate job that is yours that you find real happiness.

GOLD!

They are having a little gold-rush affair in Nevada. The prospectors hope to find a great amount of the coveted article. We wish them well. Where there is wealth in the earth it ought to be brought out, whether it consists of oil, potatoes or gold.

But suppose too much gold were found! What if gold were so common as iron or lumber and no more precious! Despite the legal and economic restraints that artificially seem to control our monetary system there would be certain deflation. Scarcity does have its part in the medium or standard of exchange and value.

Gold may be compared with virtue: not in its scarcity, but in its preciousness; and in these times we might say also in its scarcity, and not be too severely questioned. But it is the outstanding characteristic of virtue that renders it valuable as a nexample to others.

Again, like seeking for gold there are too many who relegate the seeking after virtue and righteousness as something "old-fashioned,"—as something of "ye olden days." Which prompts us to assert that there are too many speculators and too few prospectors in both the valuable ore of the earth called gold, and the more precious product of the soul called virtue.

The Copy-Book Maxim

The maxims that we copied when we were children learning to write are trite, but they are as sound today as they were when uttered for the first time. Thus an old proverb said

'Silk and satin, scarlets and velvets put out the kitchen fire.'

The man that regularly saves part of his income seldom has to worry about the kitchen fire or any other of the necessaries or comforts of the home. American Trust savings accounts earn interest at four per cent, compounded semi-annually.

TRAMP DAY AT H. S.

Derbies, old shirts, red noses, bandanas, black eyes, or what have you?

Not to be outdone by the girls, the boys decided to have "Tramp Day," Wednesday, March 23rd..

Bright and early they showed up at school, standing in self-conscious groups around the yard, and reveling in the admiring gazes of the girls. You've heard that old adage, "United we stand, divided we fall,".the boys believe it too; few of them strayed from the main flock.

At noone the boys paraded the streets on a truck with their banner flying high, and horns blowing to let the people of Campbell know that the high school is still populated, even though there isn't room to sit down.

The loyalty spirit ran a trifle wild when some boys decided to "duck" those who refused to dress as befitted the day. However, coach Noddin effectively quelled the disturbance.

Cameras clicked busily as the "tramps" were snapped for the "Oriole." the trampiest tramp of them all.

But what about making the rest of the year clean-up day for the boys? The girls don't need it. For some of the boys tramp day seemingly occurs every day.

"Dusty" Leon Miller as chairman of the Kiwanis luncheon was responsilbe for the club enjoying one of its best talks by Friend Lon Cleveland of Modesto. His talk was on business eithics and he stated that in 1915, 75 per cent of the heads of manufacturing plants were applying the golden rule in their methods.

Herbert Hoover was the beginner of a work to systematize thru a government department a code of ethics and standardization of activities by survey. The Kiwanis club serves men throughout the country in a remarkable way by regularly bringing them together in an atmosphere of brotherly friendship. This atmosphere is carried away by the member to have its influence on another.

President T. A. Cutting appointed new members on three committees. They are: Chas. Robins, attendance, L. Shelley, membership, and Jos. Bennett, publicity.

Frank Rego will be chairman next Wednesday and the talk will be on the telephone system.

Bridge Party

One of the pretty parties of spring was the bridge luncheon given last Thursday by Mrs. L. T. Lenox and Mrs. W. H. Stray.

The dainty luncheon was served at the home of Mrs. Lenox and was carried out on the Saint Patrick's motif in a very pretty way, with the dainty green and white spring flowers, in the menu, and in the appointment.

The guests then adjourned next door to Mrs. Stray's for the afternoon's games where the same motif prevailed. Table prizes were won by Mrs. E. G. Ainsley, Mrs. Hattie Baugh, Mrs. G. E. Farley and Mrs. C. W. Wolff.

Little excitement is expected at school election today as there are no contests to be fought out

Mrs. W. Brain and children have moved to San Jose to be nearer their work. They have been living in the Dewey apartments over the Miller Store.

LYDIA WINDSOR COOPER

Lydia Windsor Cooper, one of Campbell's pioneers passed away early Thursday morning at the home of her daughter in Campbell.

Mrs. Cooper was nearly 86 years of age and had resided in Campbel for 37 years. She took a prominent part in the community and social life of the town until stricken with paralysis about fifteen years ago.

Since that time she has been almost completely confined to her home. Her husband, Dr. C. N. Cooper, died a little more than year ago, and since that time she has lived with her daughter, Mrs. T. A. Cutting.

Mrs. Cooper was born in Bilston, England, June 24, 1841, and at the age of three accompanied her older brothers and sisters and parents in emmigration to America.

Her father, John Wesley Windsor, was a Congregational missionary to Iowa, arriving prior to the famous Iowa Missionary Band. As a child she learned the hardship of missionary life on the frontiers-amid Indians, the snows of winter, and irreligious and sometiimes desperate pioneers.

As a student at Grinell College she met Charles Cooper and after his term of service in the Civil War and graduation from college they were married in 1869.

The doctor had a medical practice in Iowa, Illinois, and then in Tennessee before the move to Campbell.

Mrs. Cooper was true to her missionary stock in the spirit of service, in courage, and in fortitude. Only such traits of character as these could have rendered her a fine partner for the sacrificing work of a country doctor.

She was an active worker in the Campbell Congregational Church which her brother, Dr. Wiliam Windsor, founded, and in the final invalid period of her life she gained much comfort from her Christian faith and trust and from the hymns of which she had been so fond since childhood.

There are three sons and a dauhgter, Chas. W. Cooper, electrician of Oakland; John H. Cooper, dentist of Hanford; Mrs. T. A. Cutting of Campbell; and Will Cooper of the S. P. Company, Oakland; al lof whom have frequently visited their mother during her last illness.

The funeral services will be held from the Congregational Church at Campbell, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

Bankers Will Attend Agricultural School

On Friday, April 8th and Saturday, April 9th, bankers from all parts of California will attend an agricultural short course at Davis, where the University of California conducts an experimental station.

The first day's work, Friday, April 8, is being planned under the direction of the experiment station staff of investigators and they will need the whole day to show the results accomplished and agricultural problems under investigation.

The evening session, Friday, April 8, will be held at Sacramento, and the program is under the direction of the Department of Agricultural Economics and will be of particular interest to bankers, as they deal with the underlying factors that determine the financial status of the farming industry.

Saturday morning, April 9, on returning to Davis, and under the direction of the Extension Division, will be shown how the agricultural and economic facts discovered by the investigation of all other departments of the college, as well as through the efforts of the United States Department of Agriculture, may be made available to bankers and their clients wherever located. Much of this will probably be shown by actual demonstration, as all the facilities of the experiment station and of the branch of the Agricultural College will be available. Farm advisors and agricultural club leaders will be prepared to "show" those in attendance, even though they hail from Missouri.

Roy G. Archibald, manager of the local bank will attend the sessions.

BOY SCOUT NOTES

On Monday evening the troop enjoyed a swim in the San Jose High pool. On taking a census it was found that practically every boy in to troop could swim.

In the patrol contest the standings for the week ending last Saturday were as follows:

Pine Tree Patrol—105
Stork Patrol—92
Wolf Patrol—91
Wood Pigeon—76

The Pine Patrol is going on a hike Saturday, March 26, rain or shine. This is to be for test passing exclusively.

There will be several Campbell boys at the court of honor which will be held in conection with the Blosom Festival. At that time they receive the rewards for their progress in Scouting.

Dont' forget the big Pep Meeting which will be held in the near future.

The boys are looking forward with eagerness to the opening of the fishing season, as a trip to Boulder Creek is to be held on the opening day.

Recruits are still needed to fill the rtoop quota of 32. Any boys desiring to join should see Mr. Abbot at the Grammar School.

We all miss Leland and "Toby" Lea who are now in quarantine.

With the spring weather there will soon be many Merit Badge Scouts in the troop, as they were handicapped by the winter weather in passing tests. At present there are only two in the troop.

Miss Grace Coupland is convalescing satisfactorily from an operation for appendicitis performed last Thursday at the San Jose hospital.

Instant hot water at 3 a. m. by turning faucet

Automatic gas water heater brings comfort, convenience

The nearest hot water faucet is always a source of refreshing comfort — with an automatic gas water heater in your home.

It supplies plentiful hot water any time. All you do is turn on a hot water tap for a cupful or gallons of steaming water.

Two kinds of automatic heaters

There is one type of heater called the "Automatic Storage System." It keeps a supply of steaming hot water in the boiler—always ready for use. While another, called the "Automatic Instantaneous Type," heats an endless stream of water at the turn of a faucet. No boiler needed here, for the water heats as it flows through hot coils.

* NO RAZORS ALLOWED *

The Fiesta King Fungi II contest is on!

With hundreds of noisemakers, whistles, and horns King Fungi I was heralded into San Jose last Monday afternoon and with his advent, the race to choose his successor was started. Every male citizen in Santa Clara County is commanded by his Hirsute Majesty to grow whisekers "longer and thicker."

Adopting the motto "More Hair on More Subjects," every policeman, every fireman, every business man, every motorman and conductor, and every other home sapiens has practically deserted the razor until the close of the Fiesta May 7.

Resolutions have been passed by several societies, several prizes have been offered, regulations and rules by the bushel have been adopted, most dire of penalites are to be executed and every housewife has been promised a hair mattress before the new king is chosen, since the few days when the contest started.

The Kingdom of Hirsutania was nce Santa Clara County but is no more: The Hairey men of that famous county are about to bring back the olden days of California when the side whiskers and moustachios were in style!

It is in good condition to this point, but closed beyond.

People entering California ports may expect their baggage to be examined with almost microscopic minuteness, the chief of the state department of agriculture announced. Mediterranean fruit fly, dreaded pest for crops of this state, was found alive in the baggage of a Los Angeles man, when he landed at San Pedro. This is the first pest of that nature to be brought to California and paves the way for heavier work on the part of agriculture inspection agents in examining baggage.

Simply because the elementary rules of sanitation were observed, fresh milk from the western part of the San Joaquin valley shipped without spoiling to Manila, in the Philippine Islands, it was announced in Sacramento by the state department of agriculture. Without observance of the rules laid down by the department, it is claimed, the milk could not be shipped to San Francisco without going bad but now, without preservatives, it will keep several weeks under refrigeration.
